Message from the President on the Occasion of the 42nd Ramkhamhaeng University Establishment Day

For more than forty years Ramkhamhaeng University has efficiently and effectively carried out its mission. It has continuously produced quality graduates dedicated to the service of society. Nowadays, a large number of RU graduates have become successful and have reached the leadership ranks of both public and private organizations. Their accomplishments have undoubtedly enhanced the reputation of the university.

On the auspicious occasion of the 42nd Ramkhamhaeng University Establishment Day, I would like to thank the administrators and all RU personnel who have devoted themselves to the advancement of the university and the burnishing of its reputation. In the years to follow, our university will be confronted with educational challenges at both the domestic and ASEAN levels. I am confident that all of you will cooperate in overcoming all obstacles and shall be committed to unceasing efforts to ensure the university continues to make advances.

Thus, I invoke all sacred powers and the statue of King Ramkhamhaeng the Great to the end that you shall be vouchsafed blessings and that you and your families shall have your desires for happiness, growth and success fulfilled. May all of you be afforded the opportunity to engage in fruitful work and to enjoy a prosperous and secure life.
